Incident Summary: On 10-14-22 the male black suspect came into the above listed business with two young children. The suspect loaded the shopping cart with groceries and headed to the self checkout. Suspect scanned some items from the cart and then placed 1 dollar in the machine. Suspect then attempted to flee the store as Loss Prevention attempted to stop him. Loss Prevention officer stated when she confronted the suspect he swung on her with a closed fist and then tried to dash out the exit door with the cart full of groceries. The suspect continued to struggle with the second employee as Loss Prevention tried to recover stolen items. Suspect fled the scene with two young children.
